Tasting notes: the appearance is vivid garnet with fine pink reflections. The nose has beautiful aromas of strawberry jam accompanied by delicate fragrances of fresh rose. The palate is gourmet with notes of sour cherry with a finish of fresh nuts.

History: This old hunting lodge, built in the 17th century, owes its name to the historic figure of Ogier de Gourgue who was an adviser to King Louis XIII, Treasurer of France and Commissioner of Finances for Bordeaux. Overlooking the Garonne hills, this charming estate has belonged to the current owners, the Vincent family, since 2010.
